

Barbara Mutch-R. G. Jones Married at St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Barbara Carol Mutch and Robert Gordon Jones on Saturday afternoon, June 4 at 4 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Brady, 20841 Jamison Ave. and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Jones of Long Beach. The Rev. Arthur E. Bell read the marriage ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white lace and tulle ballerina length gown and an elbow length illusion veil. Her bouquet was of white orange blossoms and pink roses. Irving Caulkins gave her in marriage.

Miss Rosaline Palumbo was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pink net gown and carried pink and blue carnations. Ernest C. Jones, Jr. was best man and the 100 wedding guests were seated by Monte K. Ogden and Douglas Kay. Miss Sandra Mele was in charge of the guest book.

Miss Katherine Mills at the organ accompanied Lee Hughes as he sang "O Perfect Love" and "Lord at Canna Wedding Feast." A reception followed in the parish hall after which the couple left for a honeymoon at Malibu. The new home has been established in Long Beach.

JAMES SNELLS ARE HOME FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. James Snell of 20351 Denker Ave., recently returned from a motor trip which took them through eight states. They visited friends and relatives in Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Nebraska and Utah. Returning, they stopped in Montana, Las Vegas, Nevada and state parks on their homeward route.

Mrs. Snell received a transatlantic phone call last week from her son, Sgt. Elmer Banks who is stationed in Munich, Germany. The five minute talk revealed possible plans that he and his family may be home for the Christmas holidays.

Nuptials Are Solemnized At Church of the Flowers

In a late afternoon ceremony on June 12 at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Park, Miss Elizabeth Mary Haycraft, daughter of Brigadier General and Mrs. T. W. Haycraft, of Fairy Hill, Rostrevor, County Down, North Ireland, plighted her marriage vows with Devere F. Buckland, 20315 Denker Ave., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Buckland, 10404 Western Ave.

The Rev. B. W. Bruffett, pastor of the Eagle Rock, Christian Church officiated at the marriage.

The bride was given in marriage by Charles Page. She wore a white broaded gown with a standup collar, plain front, skirt with a bustle effect at the back, and a short train. Her veil was edged with Bretton lace and fell from a Bretton white lace cap. She carried a sheaf of white gladioli.

Mrs. Marion Alexander wearing leaf green taffeta and carrying pink gladioli was the matron of honor. Miss Julie Trimnell in apple green organza dotted with apple blossom sprays and carrying pink gladioli was the bridesmaid. Little Mary Jo Buckland in apple green organza was the flower girl.

William H. Buckland was best man and Dwight C. Buckland was the usher. A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Buckland.

The bridegroom is a member of the U.S. Naval Reserve and the Fleet Reserve Assn.
